

Consultancy Services

Offshore Consultancy Companies

These operate in a similar way to export and trading companies but are mainly used by individuals who travel and provide consultancy and contractual services to different clients in different countries in fields such as- IT, construction, electronics, finance and entertainment. Profits transferred back to the home country by the Consultant company are usually subject to income taxes but AMP & Partners can suggest tax efficient ways for beneficiaries to receive funds; such as, by making use of personal allowances, receipt by dividends, use of tax treaties and tax credits.
