Gibraltar, Europe's leading e-commerce centre

has an 'onshore' tax structure quite similar to that of the UK so far as income and corporation tax is concerned, although there are no capital gains or inheritance taxes. However, as long as a company does not do business locally (i.e, have transactions with local residents) it can use the provisions in the non-resident company legislation to allow the company to be exempt from income and withholding taxes. Gibraltar, rightfully claims to be one of the leading e-commerce jurisdictions in Europe. As far back as in 2001, Gibraltar passed its first legislation specifically designed to attract e-commerce businesses.

Why Re- Locate your website to Gibraltar ?

If you are starting a new business or your business is international in nature, you can save on income taxes by re-locating your website to Gibraltar. Existing and new clients contacting you via your website will be making the point of sale in Gibraltar and these sales will not be subject to income tax in Gibraltar. If your website is owned by a 'carefully and properly structured' Gibraltar non-resident company, then the company will not be liable to pay any taxes in Gibraltar or in your home country.
